School Board Member Says Library Facilities Most Important Need

Chairman of the Arlington Finance Committee, Arthur Saul, noted that about one-third of the total 1957 budget concerned school costs (Mr. Saul estimated that the general budget would be close to $6,000,000) and Mrs. Mary Porteus stated that the greatest need now in Arlington schools is for increased library facilities as the Arlington School Citizens Committee held a first "very successful" meeting at the new Thompson school (North Union street) Tuesday night.

Although the hall was not packed to capacity a good turnout was noted for the panel discussion and question period moderated by John B. Davis, Jr., Executive Secretary of the New England School Development Council. Mr. Davis opened the session with a short talk and in turn introduced Chairman of the Finance Committee Arthur Saul, Jr., Superintendent of Schools Clifford Hall; Chairman of the School Committee Eleanor Strong; and School Committee member Mary Porteus.

In his introductory remarks Mr. Davis noted that "the meeting

Maybe it was the cold wave, but there were an unusual outbreak of lost wallets in Arlington last week. No less than five persons reported losing their wallets along with money ranging from $6 to $145 dollars and personnel papers.

The person who lost the wallet containing $145 later called and said he had found it.

Million Dollar Incinerator Article Also In Warrant

A request for a four per cent increase in wages for all Town Employees with a $168 minimum clause and another request for an appropriation of up to an estimated $1,000,000 for the construction of a refuse incinerator were among the articles placed on the Town Warrant for vote at the Town Meeting in March. In all, some 93 articles were submitted before the Monday deadline.

The request under Article 7 as submitted by the Personnel Board for a four per cent increase asked for an estimated total sum of $91,000.

At the same time, 10 registered voters requested under Article 23 that Town Employees receive an "across the Board" $208 pay hike.

No separate school budget articles appear in the warrant this year. All school budget requests will be voted under the general budget article.

Articles 7-23 are concerned with reallocations in various Town Departments as inserted by the Personnel Board and involved sums of money ranging generally in the $200-$500 appropriation area.

Article 22 as inserted by the Personnel Board seeks to place all Town Employees with the exception of fire and police personnel on unemployment compensation.

Seek Classification Change

Article 23 deals with vacations and sick leave for Town Employees. It asks specifically for 2 weeks vacation for employees with less than 10 years of Town employment; three weeks for those employed over 10 years; and four weeks for those employed for over 20 years.

92 Seek Three Year Terms As Town Meeting Members

All but four precincts have at least the minimum number of candidates for the three year term of Town Meeting membership posts according to the latest report from Town Clerk James J. Golden. Precincts 2, 5, 10, and 12 still have more vacancies than candidates. However, Golden anticipated that candidates would be filing before the deadline for filing of nomination papers January 28 at 5 p.m.

All potential candidates who file this week must have nomination papers. Up until last Monday night at 5 p.m. incumbents were able to file by simply filling out a "form" and returning it to Mr. Golden at the Town Clerk's office. Meanwhile, only four candidates have announced intentions of becoming candidates for the seven one-year vacancies and only one for the three two-year vacancies.

School Meeting

would not be satisfactory from everyone's point of view."

Adds to Tax Rate

Bringing out a few random remarks prior to the opening of the panel he noted that population has doubled since 1900 while school enrollment has increased 12-fold. In quoting from a reliable source he noted "the prime reason for school today is absorption of time and energy."

Mr. Davis listed among his vital questions, "What shall our schools accomplish", and among the big school problems, "the availability of appropriation of research in schools."

In tracking down a few vital figures, Mr. Saul stated that generally school cost since 1949 in Arlington has added approximately $16.85 to the tax rate and that the high school reconstruction program was not included in that figure. He noted that this program could add another $1.70 to the tax rate.

He went on to say that major school construction has cost the Town the sum of $5,120,000 since 1948.

Superintendent of Schools Clifford Hall brought to light the accomplishments of the Arlington schools in the last 12 years, listing as follows: formation of the vocational school; beginnings of the kindergarten; inception of driver education program; the fact that trainable youngsters are now taught in Arlington; in-session classes on Wednesday afternoon; improvements of reading methods; speech instruction; the addition of a psychiatrist; the addition of a reading consultant.

Chairman of the School Committee Eleanor Strong said that Arlington tries to keep salaries of teachers in line so as to be in a good bargaining position. She noted that the community does not go overboard on salaries, but that the salary area in the local school system is being explored all the time.

Concerning housing, she said that only nine of 139 elementary classes in the community have more than 30 children in them.

Outlines School Needs

Mary Porteus, member of the Arlington School Committee, speaking of hope for the school future outlined needs of local schools as follows: expansion of school library facilities; expansion of school personnel program; need of social worker; expansion of dental facilities; possible need of new school Indian Hill area, (hinging on what happens to Route 3); and a need for expansion of the school physical education program.

The question period which followed the panel talks brought to light many interesting areas of discussion concerning the local schools.

In answer to the question of how Arlington schools costs compare with costs in other communities, it was noted that Arlington's per pupil cost is the second lowest when compared to those of eight other communities in the area.

Mrs. Strong answered the question of where the largest school budget increase was noted with "instructional service."

Concerning a question about State Aid for schools, Mr. Saul noted that Arlington will receive approximately $306,953 State Aid in 1957.

The Chairman of the Finance Committee drew a laugh when he quoted: "the reason we should get State Aid is to get what we paid for."

In answer to the question what is the most important school needs today, Mrs. Porteus answered "Library Facilities", noting that several communities in the area spend far more for libraries than does Arlington.

Ready in September

In answer to a question about the high school reconstruction program, Mrs. Strong stated that work on the reconstruction program at Lowe Auditorium where 13 rooms will be constructed should start in April and be finished by September.

Mr. Hall answered a question on books by saying that the book budget is higher now and that costs of books are increasing as well.

Questioned about school salaries, Mrs. Strong said that the local committee preferred to go slowly on the matter.

Mr. Hall answered a question about teachers by saying that it is becoming a problem to obtain good science teachers.

Mrs. Porteus replied to another library question with the answer that about $10,000 would be needed here to improve library facilities.

Released time classes and Wednesday afternoon in-service teacher sessions, and married teachers, were among the other subjects brought out during the question period.

The only provocative issue raised during the entire two hours was a remark by one resident that the Town's teacher's on the whole were "mediocre."

TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

January 21, 1957

Dear Editor:

M. S. Shapiro in her letter of January 17 raises important questions which indeed need consideration by the School Committee and the citizens of Arlington as they contemplate a released time program permitting children to leave school early for instruction at church. Mrs. Shapiro wisely warns us that frictions, harmful to some children, and divisiveness, harmful to all, might occur. Surely no program should be put into effect which does not carefully safeguard against unfairness to any child, family, or religious denomination.

But it seems to me that the fundamental problem facing the community is not touched, and this is what concerns me. What can the community as a community do to decrease religious illiteracy? I myself wish that the religious community could come to agreement with the educational system so that all children could give at least one (optional) year to the study of selections from the Old and New Testaments at least—such teaching to be done by teachers as carefully trained as a teacher of Shakespeare. The objective would be to increase sensitivity to the great Judeo-Christian tradition at least. Why should our children graduate from school knowing Shakespeare (thank heavens for that!) but not the Bible?

But, assuming that some such plan is not immediately feasible, I am so concerned about the need for more systematic and controlled work than is possible in Sunday School, that if the religious communities in Arlington find this is the best way for dealing with this problem, I am all for it. If Wednesday afternoon is the most feasible time, all the better.

I am a strong believer in (what I believe is misleadingly called) separation of church and state. But I see no reason for supposing that released time involves coercion or infringement of religious (or non-religious) conviction, which is what the First Amendment to the Constitution prohibits. Let us guard religious (and non-religious) freedom jealously, but let us also allow those who wish to have a more adequate religious training for their children in these times to proceed with the best plans that can be worked out in Arlington. It is at least as important to have our children understand religious problems, as it is to increase aesthetic appreciation or to have them understand scientific problems. Incidentally, is it more important to have trained persons teach our sixteen-year-olds to drive automobiles, than it is to have trained persons teach them the Bible (both optional, of course)?

Sincerely yours,
Peter A. Bertocci

To the Editor

Dear Sir:

Brotherhood Week, sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, providing as it does the opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to the basic ideals of respect for people and human rights, essential to the continuance of our way of life, gives us the chance to dramatize practical things we all can do to promote understanding, and it encourages planning for year-round activities to build Brotherhood with amity and justice.

Brotherhood Week, February 17-14, 1957 is recognized as a period of rededication to the spiritual and moral values of our democratic society.

The attention of all to the significance of this week can be gained in no more effective way than through the means of our mass media of communication. I know that under the leadership of Norman Knight, Mass Media Chairman, you will again make a meaningful contribution to this observance.

I speak for many people as well as myself when I thank you for your fullest cooperation in utilizing the materials published by the National Conference.

Please call upon the Conference if we can be of assistance to you.

Watertown Edges Locals Sefton Paces JV Scorers

Failure to hit from the foul line again cost the Arlington high school basketball team a victory in its battle with Watertown last weekend; and for the third time in as many games the locals were edged out in the closing minutes of play, this time 35-32.

The local JV's rolled to a 37-31 decision over the Watertown juniors, after piling up a substantial 26-17 third period lead.

In the varsity game Arlington was strong during the second and third periods to hold a one point edge over the winners going into the final period, but the Watertown club scored 9 points in the closing session while the locals scored but 5.

Watertown jumped out into an early 10-5 first period lead over the Spy Pond team, but Arlington put together a big second period scoring 12 points to hold a 17-16 lead at half time. Each team tallied 10 points in the third canto to send the contest into the final period with Arlington sporting a 27-26 margin.

The contest was a defensive battle all the way with only two players, Skendarian with 10 points and Pigott with 11 points, scoring in double figures. Watertown was unable to place anyone in the double figure column.

Meanwhile, the Arlington JV's, paced by Jack Sefton's 10 points moved past the Watertown juniors 37-31. The Arlington team trailed in this one 14-12 at the end of the half, but outscored Watertown 14-3 in the third period to cop the decision.

The Arlington varsity has hit on fifty percent of its foul shots only once this season, that in the game it won. The Watertown game average was 6 out of 11. Watertown hit 11 for 18.

Fingold-Senators To Confer About Delinquency Program

A "no-holds barred" continuation of his program to keep Massachusetts from being plagued with the soaring crime rates now confronting most of the Nation, was pledged by Attorney General George Fingold this week, as he officially embarked on his new term.

The attorney general also announced he would confer in Washington with Senators Saltonstall and Kennedy to seek their active support of a proposed 11 million dollar Federal-State program to curb juvenile delinquency, with a view toward furthering the Massachusetts campaign against this problem.

In a statement issued following his being sworn into office by Governor Foster Furcolo, Attorney General Fingold said:

"Despite an increase of 18 percent in crime throughout the country during the past year, the rate of organized crime and individual crimes has not been increased by any such ratio in the Commonwealth.

"This fortunate state of affairs is due mainly to the high caliber of law-enforcement officers on all levels of government within the Commonwealth. The Department of the Attorney General will continue its practice of meeting with District Attorneys and police officials to coordinate plans, programs and information to the end that people of our Commonwealth will enjoy maximum security and safety.

"Juvenile delinquency remains a problem which requires our constant attention. By and large, members of our young population are a credit to their families and communities. However, a critical situation involving the minority exists. All of us are determined that those few youngsters who constitute a public menace will be promptly and affirmatively dealt with.

"There are many practical solutions to the problem of juvenile delinquency. There are existing blueprints for its eradication. There are willing hands to carry out this important task.

"Unfortunately, the solutions, the blueprints and the workers require funds. There is no clear evidence the Commonwealth can or will provide the funds. We must turn to the Federal government. Therefore, when I am in Washington this week, I shall confer with Senators Saltonstall and Kennedy and other members of the Massachusetts Congressional delegation to urge their active aid in the successful passage of legislation now pending which will provide Massachusetts with thousands of dollars desperately needed to erase the blight of juvenile delinquency."

Also scoring for the winners were Miss Doherty 2 points; Miss Beaton 8 points, Miss Abizaid 5 points; for the losers Miss Austin 7 points, Miss Pitts 2 points, and Miss Meyers 1 point.

Since only forwards are allowed to score in girls basketball many girls get into the lineup without any totals beside their names. Use More Funds

It has been learned from a reliable source that the Town of Arlington plans to use some $300,500 of its available funds to offset its tax rate this year. Last year, a total of $100,000 of the available funds were used. The use of the additional funds would tend to offset some $2.60 of the tax rate, but would not necessarily guarantee that the 1956 rate would be reduced.

Ask Correction Of Mystic Street Cable Project

The Town of Arlington has requested and the contractor has agreed to correct what has been called "unsatisfactory back filling" in connection with the installation of telephone cable along Mystic street.

It is thought that the condition is partly attributable to the recent severe weather conditions.

More "Free Cash"

The Town of Arlington is in a better financial condition as far as free cash or free available surplus is concerned according to reliable reports. The unofficial free cash figure for 1956 yet to be certified by the State Division of Accounts has been set at $675,842. The 1955 figure was $330,500.

Town Accountant Foritano told this paper that to his knowledge this 1956 figure is the highest in the last six years.

FOUR AGAINST ONE — Melrose goalie Glen Crosby gets set for Arlington's Dave Mahoney as the Arlington puckster races between three Melrose players in an attempt to handle loose puck near his skate. Blocking Mahoney's path is Parks, number 8, while at left is Dobbins who scored the winning goal for the Melrose club.

Arlington Loses To Melrose To Send G.B.I. Race Into 4 Team Scramble

A goal seconds after the opening of the final period by Paul Dobbins of Melrose sent the GBI Hockey League race into a three team tie, with a fourth club only a point away.

Dobbins goal came at the 24 second mark of the final period sent Melrose ahead by one goal over Arlington 2-1.

Meanwhile Belmont scored a 10-0 decision over Rindge to grab a third of the league roof along with Arlington and Melrose. Newton chalked up a second consecutive verdict edging Cambridge Latin 3-1. The loss dropped Latin into fifth place in what Arlington Coach Ed Burns described as one of the most evenly matched leagues in years.

In the other contest last weekend, Medford scrambled into sixth place by defeating Stoneham 2-0.

Grab Early Lead

Arlington hopped out front in its contest with Melrose as Mahoney scored from Aiken at 2:45 of the opening period. Melrose knotted the count four minutes later with Fletcher scoring from Parks and Broderick.

The game was probably the top contest of the season so far with both teams putting on a terrific defensive show. Tommy Apprille, Arlington's sophomore netminder was a "miracle man" in the local cage, while Glen Crosby tending goal for the winners was also immense.

After Melrose scored what proved to be the winning marker in the final session the two sextets waged terrific defensive battles up and down the ice. Arlington's youthful defensive group again did itself proud.

Arlington took 12 shots with 9 being "on net" and three astray.

Newton has now tied Arlington as the highest scoring team in the loop with 27 points each. The locals have scored but 2 goals in the last two games. Melrose has the best defensive record in the league allowing but seven goals in six games, while Arlington and Belmont have allowed but nine.

Boys Club In "March Tilt"

The Arlington Boys' Club Park League team will play the St. Agnes Crusaders this Saturday night at Jr. High West. This is a benefit game for the March of Dimes. The Boys' Club has a 7 plus 1 record, having defeated St. Agnes, St. Jerome's, St. Agnes, First Baptist, Congregational, Immaculate Conception, American Jr. Legion, and the Horgan A.C. Their only loss was to Park Avenue Congregational, a 3 point heart-breaker!

Probable starting lineup will be as follows: Dave Sullivan, Center; Bob Syvester and Gene Courtney, forward; Al Sullivan and Dennis Briand, guards; with Bob Kenney, Hank Egan, Neal Harold, Billy Cox and Jackie Goss waiting to go, it should be a terrific game!

In speaking with Mr. Dave Crowley and Mr. Perry Sylvester, coaches of the team, they said, "Our club will be at full strength, and a tough team to beat!" More important, they continue, "because it is a benefit game for the March of Dimes our boys will be in there playing every second! We promise all spectators they will enjoy a well spent evening. Hope to see you at the game."

The Boys' Club varsity had a split week having defeated the Boston Covies who came in second for Boston Park League championship in 1956 by the deciding score of 102-51. The loss of the week was to the Dorchester YMCA. Score for that one was 106-84. Roster for the Arlington Boys' Club Varsity are as follows: Art Dahill, Joe Madigan, Buzz Beardsley, Paul Cochran, John Cochran, Joe Deigan, Tom Sullivan, Dick O'Connor, Paul Leonard, and Bobby Long.

Salvation Army Sets $600,000 Boston Goal

A $600,000 goal has been set for the 1957 Salvation Army Friendly Annual Appeal in Greater Boston, it was announced by Colonel Ralph T. Miller, New England Provincial Commander.

The famed Salvation Army International Staff Band from London will "kick-off" the Spring drive with a combined concert and top leadership meeting at the Boston Opera House on May 1.

The money raised maintains 35 agencies including the Red Shield Club for Servicemen, Booth Hospital, South End Boys' Club and Day Nursery.

An additional 53 Service Funds disburse money and aid to meet local needs and emergencies such as summer camp for children and disaster services.

The campaign will run the entire month of May.

"Anyone who has a legitimate need will receive help without regard to race or creed," said Col. Miller.

Approve $41,000

Under Chapter 718

The Arlington Board of Selectmen approved recommendations of construction of three more streets under Chapter 718, Acts of 1956. Latest streets approved were Gray street, Pine Ridge road to Oakland avenue, $23,000; Park avenue extension, Lowell street to Blossom street $13,000; and a section of Park Circle, $4900.

Previously approved were five street construction projects amounting to $28,300. The costs are all estimates.

The money for these projects was made available last year by the state for highway improvements in the several communities of the Commonwealth. Arlington's share is $115,000. The money can be utilized this year or over a period of years.

No Opposition

To Harris Bill

At Hearing

A bill authored by Selectman George A. Harris which would set a speed limit of fifteen miles an hour in any posted school zone in Massachusetts was heard Tuesday by the State Legislative Committee on Motor Vehicles.

Mr. Harris had interested the Massachusetts Selectmen's Association in this bill last October and, by a unanimous vote of the members present, received the backing of Selectmen from all over the Commonwealth.

Representing the Association at the hearing Selectman Harris explained to the legislative committee how badly the law was needed to cut down needless deaths of children. "There is no doubt that this law can take some of the terror out of the school streets and can alleviate the anxiety that is a daily part of parents' lives," he said.

Mr. Harris was supported by a group of Parent Teachers Association officials from Quincy where death had recently struck young children in such areas. There was no opposition to the bill from those present at the hearing.

Last week, Selectman Harris appeared before the Committee on Public Safety on another bill he sponsored which would eliminate certain hazards in excavations of any kind by giving Mayors and Selectmen power to force owners to erect barriers or to take means to eliminate hazards. Mr. Harris explained how Boards of Selectmen were powerless to order an owner to drain off basement excavations which were filled with water to a depth which would drown children who were unable to swim. This bill was also backed by the Massachusetts Selectmen Association.

To Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Colton Jr. (Ruth M. McClure) of 41 Vista Drive, Danvers, a daughter named Jean Marie on January 10, at Symmes.

17 Vie For Offices In Junior Leaders Corps

Seventeen members of Fidelity House will vie for four offices in the newly organized Junior Leaders Corp on Saturday, January 26. The offices of president, vice-president, secretary and three counselors are being sought after by those members who have been nominated by other members during the past two weeks. The Corp will take active leadership in future programs for the 13, 14, and 15 year old age group at Fidelity House.

Ballet Classes, under the direction of Miss Temple, started at Fidelity House this week. Registration for these classes ran to 120, far above any expectation with the result that many applications were not accepted. Many youngsters were disappointed when the registration closed but it is hoped that further activities of this kind will get under way in the early spring.

DON'T BE A STATISTIC

Sunday afternoon a neighbor will visit your home to explain how you can join the 1957 March of Dimes and help finish the polio job. This neighbor is called a "marching mother" and she is one of the unsung heroines in the fight against polio.

Chances are that she—or another person like her—has been coming to your door for several years, and you have welcomed her with a lighted porch and a generous contribution.

In past years you gave because you knew the March of Dimes had pledged that no polio victim would have to go without needed care for lack of funds. And because something was being done about a polio vaccine. Funds for this research were gathered by marching mothers throughout the country.

Then, sometime in 1954, your children came home from school with information about a polio vaccine that was being tested. In April, 1955, the word came that the vaccine was scientific proof that the Salk polio vaccine was effective against this crippling disease.

It was in the wake of Salk vaccine discovery that Massachusetts experienced the worst polio epidemic on record in the Commonwealth's history—the summer of 1955. Thousands of men, women and children, for whom the vaccine came too late, were stricken. To help these victims, Massachusetts mothers last year raised $660,000. Throughout the country mothers collected a record fifteen million dollars in one hour of one night.

The marching mother's quiet, determined work has affected every home in our country. Only a few days ago the U. S. Public Health Service released statistics showing that polio incidence in 1956 was half of that in 1955.

You can help the marching mother in two ways next week. Be ready with a generous March of Dimes contribution—and get vaccinated against polio. She will leave you a card on which you can jot the dates of your three Salk shots. Use it, so that you won't wind up a polio statistic on next summer's health department records.

WE OFTEN HOPE

Maybe we're simply fortunate, but it is amazing to us that we don't hear of more serious injuries resulting from one of the by-products of winter—the icicle.

While most of us are concerned with cleaning up the heavy snows and keeping our cars going during the sub-zero temperatures, the forgotten menace of winter keeps growing and growing, seemingly waiting for the time when the temperature will rise above the freezing mark, thus opening a path for the long stream of frozen water to hurtle earthward.

Many of us may have noticed the beauty of these masses of ice hanging from rooftops during the most recent cold snap. Some were just beginning their growth, while others had already grown to lengths as great as two or three feet and in some cases had joined together to form one icicle with many sharp points jutting menacingly toward the ground below.

The occasional roar of an icicle dropping earthward should serve as a warning to us all of the ever-present danger lurking from above during the stormy season of winter. It should remind us of the tragedy which could occur should one of these long piercing sticks of ice break loose while one of us passes below.

We "shriek" when our streets are not plowed immediately, we "yell" when they are not sanded, and we voice many other complaints when winter's blasts strike us, but how many times do we "make" a check of the conditions which exist over our door-ways when snow is melting and forming icicles. Often, we hope, for some day we may not be quite so "lucky".

Babson Discusses AN INVESTMENT

Exclusive NEWS Feature

It is the first time for several years that I have felt free to recommend any specific stock or bond in this Weekly Column. I, however, now want to explain the mention of non-taxable bonds which I made in my recent Forecast for 1957.

HISTORY OF BONDS

There is a big difference between stocks and bonds. Stocks own the equity in a corporation. Profits go to the stockholders after payment of interest on the bonds and other indebtedness. This may be much or none, and it fluctuates up and down. Some people make lots of money by buying stocks at the right time; while other people lose everything by buying them at the wrong time.

Bonds — on the contrary — are the same as a mortgage on your house. The interest on bonds is a prior claim. Usually their price does not fluctuate as widely as the price of common stocks and the interest is most always paid. Hence, they are much safer to buy than are stocks. In addition to U. S. Government Bonds, there are three other important types of bonds: (1) "Full Faith" State and Municipal Bonds, which are the safest investment you can buy and whose interest is non-taxable. (2) Corporation Bonds, which—of the same company—are safer than the stock of that company, but their interest is taxable. (3) Revenue Bonds which are issued by your state, city, or town, but your interest payment depends upon the earnings of a state turnpike, or upon your local gas, water, or sewerage system. This interest, however, is not taxable.

TODAY'S PRICES FOR BONDS

All bonds are cheaper than they have been for over 20 years. Buy almost any today and you should have an excellent investment. But by proper selection, with the help of an investment counselor, you should be sure to make money particularly by purchasing selected non-taxable bonds. Buying good non-taxable bonds is just like discovering gold in your own back yard. No reader of this column remembers my ever saying this since the panic of 1929-1932.

All of the following non-taxable Revenue Bonds were selling at par ($1,000) a few months ago. Today they can be bought as follows:

Security	Rate	Maturity	Price
Florida Turnpike Authority Revenue	3 3/4%	4/1/55	88.50
Illinois Toll Highway Revenue	3 3/4%	1/1/55	87.00
Indiana Toll Road Commission Revenue	3 1/2%	1/1/54	87.50
Greater New Orleans Expressway Revenue	4%	11/1/54	92.00
Maine Turnpike Revenue	4%	1/1/54	89
Mackinac Bridge Authority Revenue	4%	1/1/54	94.50
Ohio Turnpike Revenue	3 3/4%	6/1/52	88.50
Chesapeake Bay Ferry District Revenue	4 1/4%	4/1/56	95.00
Massachusetts Turnpike Revenue	3.30%	5/1/54	87.00

NON-TAXABLE BENEFITS

But here is something else to remember. The income you get from ANY stock, corporation bond, or even U. S. Government Bond, is taxable. Practically everyone must pay a Federal Tax of at least 20%—25% of all dividends and interest received except from State, City and Town Bonds, and special non-taxable authority issues which include these Turnpike Revenue Bonds.

Here is what this means to you. Whatever your income, you can save 20 percent - 25 percent. If, however, you are in a higher income tax bracket (say 50 percent), 4 percent on any of the above bonds could net you the same as 8 percent on taxable stocks. If your income is $50,000, then the interest on these 4 percent tax-free bonds equals 16 percent in taxable income; while those having incomes of $80,000 get an equivalent yield of 25 percent on their money after all taxes. Seems too good to be true; but it is true!

THE FLY IN THE OINTMENT

Why doesn't everyone with large incomes buy these bonds now? It may be that they are waiting for lower prices due to the fear that many more new Turnpike Bonds are coming on the market. Or it may be due to fear of the competition which these present turnpikes may have from the new U. S. Government highways. Surely I do not fear such competition.

If you believe that automobile riding is going to be less and that the automobile business is "going to pot," then don't buy these tax-free Turnpike Bonds. If you believe World War III is soon coming, when gas again will be rationed, you are justified in being cautious. But I believe such fears are now foolish. Hence, I say: "Buy seasoned Non-Taxable Turnpikes—and buy them today."

TOWN HALL Press Conference

With January just about out of the way, we are getting close to the time of year when folks hereabouts will be concerned with Town Meeting and Election.

The closing date for filing of nomination papers for office in the community is less than a week away. At this writing five candidates have taken out papers for the two spots on the Board of Selectmen. Two candidates are seeking the assessor's post; and four the three seats on the school board. Two residents are seeking the Town Treasurer's spot while the Town Clerk is the only one taking out papers for that post.

Town Clerk Golden's nomination papers have been certified as have those of chairman of the Board of Selectmen Greeley. And by this time those of candidate for the Board of Selectmen Brosnan should be certified as far as we can understand.

Contrary to some rumors heard round and about Mrs. Margaret Spengler told this paper that she is definitely not a candidate for any public office.

At the same time it is aired about that Frederick Komley is again a candidate.

Meanwhile, from the Town Clerk's office comes the report that the true listing of residents in the community is just about completed and just about on time. Very good considering the extremely cold, snowy weather and the hazardous walking conditions.

Town Clerk Golden said this week that only listings in precincts 9, 11 and 14 are as yet not completed, but that they should be by the time this paper comes out on the newsstands.

The Edison Company has announced its intentions of installing a light at the corner of Orchard place and Mass. avenue.

William P. Mahoney, a patrolman on the Arlington police department has applied for a disability discharge.

The Board of Selectmen is considering a recommendation by the Chief of Police, Albert Ryan, which could help to alleviate what are called "crowded conditions" at the Arlington Heights Taxi stand. The recommendation asks that only two cabs park in front of the present stand, while four additional cabs be allowed to park some 50 feet from Mass. avenue on Park avenue, in the section where parallel parking now is permitted.

The Assessment for the Middlesex County Sanitarium for the year is $48,418.86, while Symmes hospital claims total $21,120.29.

The State Department of Public Works has written to the local Board of Selectmen in fact, saying no to the questions of reduction of speed limit signs, stop signs etc. in the Arlington Village section. Coincidental with this turnaround is the announcement of a hearing on Route 2 construction Friday.

Meanwhile the State says that it will not sanction construction of signals at Brooks and Lake.

The Board of Selectmen will attend the VFW annual banquet at the Old Town Hall, February 16.

David Govenar has been chosen Town Wide Brotherhood Week chairman.

No opposition was voiced at a hearing Monday night at which the service station at the corner of Broadway and Marathon street asked for increase in capacity from 7500 to 10,000 gallons. The increase in storage space was requested to handle the new super gas now on the market. A handful of abutters were present.

To The Editor

The following letter was received this week by the Editor of this paper in connection with the question of "released time" classes in Arlington.

January 21, 1957

School Committee
Arlington, Mass.
Gentlemen:

In her letter concerning release from school time for religious education, I'm afraid Mrs. Shapiro may have given the impression, inadvertently I am sure, that there may be something unconstitutional or otherwise illegal about the plan.

As a lawyer I think it important to make this point crystal clear: there is no question whatsoever as to the legality of the proposed Arlington program.

For almost 16 years the laws of Massachusetts have provided that "Absences may also be permitted for religious education at such times as the school committee may establish." And it was almost five years ago that the Supreme Court of the United States put its stamp of approval on this type of released time program.

In this country, fortunately, we are at liberty to disagree both with our local laws and our court decisions. The fact that this program has been approved by the United States Supreme Court, the legislatures of many states, and the school authorities of more than 3,000 communities throughout the country, only gives added point to Mrs. Shapiro's inalienable right to express her personal disagreement.

But personal disagreement with a Supreme Court decision does not imply that the law is unsettled. I know Mrs. Shapiro intended no such implication.

So far as the "letter and spirit" of the First Amendment are concerned, I confess it seems to me that Mrs. Shapiro is not quite so persuasive as the opinion of the Court written by Mr. Justice Douglas: "we find no constitutional requirement which makes it necessary for government to be hostile to religion and to throw its weight against efforts to widen the effective scope of religious influence."

It is suggested that released time might encourage "friction and divisiveness". At risk of seeming a conformist, I am impressed by the simple fact that the program has grown so that about 3,000,000 pupils presently are participating. This doesn't sound like a program that promotes friction.

Of course our children are subjected to many subtle pressures—to go to dancing class, to join the Scouts, to participate in athletics or the science club or the music program or a score of other activities more or less school-connected. I find it hard to object when our children are also encouraged to grow in their understanding of the one element—religion—which undergirds our whole culture. As Justice Douglas says, "We are a religious people."

As to whether or not our children can afford to lose the time required for the program, I suppose that each parent must decide for himself if one hour a week of religious instruction is a gain or a loss for his own child.

Very truly yours,

Ralph F. Fuller.

Bay State Polio Leader

Marlene Olsen, 1957 March of Dimes poster girl, climaxes her visit to Washington with a call on Senator John F. Kennedy of her home state. With Marlene and Senator Kennedy is her father, Captain Arthur Olsen (center) of the U.S. Air Force, now stationed at Hanscom Field, Bedford, Mass. Senator Kennedy praised Marlene for her steady improvement in her fight against polio. The poster girl was stricken before Salk vaccine was available, but she has now been vaccinated to secure added protection. Marlene will return to her home in Boston from her March of Dimes Tour on February 4.

Praises Town For Fine Work

The following letter was received by Joseph Greeley, Chairman of the Arlington Board of Selectmen in connection with the work done by the public servants of the Town of Arlington at a fire which claimed the life of a roomer at 15 Churchill ave., Arlington. Mr. Joseph Greeley, Board of Selectmen, Arlington 74, Mass. Dear Sir:

We recently had a tragic and severe fire at our home. As tragic as the fire was (my mother's roomer perished in the fire), it would have been much worse were it not for our local Fire Department and other Town agencies.

The fire was discovered about 7:45 a.m. on the Tuesday before Thanksgiving. We reported the fire immediately. Less than 5 minutes later, Captain Canniff and about three engines were on the scene. Captain Canniff, Chief Egan, and every fire fighter I saw that day were truly amazing to me. Their technical skill (the fire was immediately under control), was exceeded only by their patience and understanding. I can't tell you how grateful we are that we have such an outstanding Fire Department protecting us. The State Fire Marshall said that the fire had been smoldering for about eight hours. A delay of minutes could have been disastrous for the house, my mother, my wife, and my two young children.

I also discovered that the Arlington building code requires that a brick "fire stop" be placed at intervals between the floor and the ceiling beneath that floor. I am sure that many Arlingtonians do not realize the protection this provides. This fire had burned through a bed, a rug, the floor, the sub-floor, and halfway through a beam. However, this "fire stop" prevented the fire from spreading. We may very well owe our lives to this building code provision.

Finally, I had no idea of the scope of the protective services provided by our Town. The Police Department thoroughly investigated the death of Miss Flynn. They arranged for the priest, medical examiner, coroner, and finally the county examiners. They were all marvelous. Mr. Reid, the Wiring Inspector, also was of great assistance to us.

Arlington is fortunate indeed to have such public servants. It took a tragedy for me to realize just how fortunate.

Sincerely,
Richard D. Medley, Jr.

Observe Youth Sunday At Universalist Church

A guest preacher delivered the sermon at the Universalist Church last Sunday on the exact 116th Anniversary of the Dedication of the Universalist Church in Arlington. Dr. Emerson Hugh Lalone was introduced by the Pastor, the Rev. George J. W. Pennington, who presented the service of worship.

Known to many Universalists of Arlington, Dr. Lalone is a vigorous personality in journalism, the academic world and the ministry. He has taught on college faculties, is a university trustee, editor of the journal prepared for Universalists everywhere, and is the author of books and devotional material.

His message, reviewing the 116 years of Universalism in this community, set forth guidance for Arlington Universalists in the coming year.

The guest preacher stated that the heritage of Universalism developed over 116 years in the local church is fulfilled as present day Universalists strengthen their church and live their religious faith.

This coming Sunday will be observed as Youth Sunday, young people taking part, with guidance from the Minister to Youth, Mr. Roland K. Hawkes.

FOOTSAVING EDUCATION

Herb Mason, owner of Mason's Shoes, Arlington Center, is fast becoming a household name. This was the topic of a recent article of mine. In the column I stressed the fact that medical science is very definite about the fact that bunions, hammer toes, corns, and callouses are not hereditary. Several leading local chiropodists have taken exception to this statement, and I feel that in the interest of accuracy I must print the fact that I have used definite source material for my statement as I do in all articles when statement of fact is involved.

However, medical textbooks do not preclude the possibility of enlarged joints or improperly positioned metatarsal bones at birth creating a susceptibility to bunions through any form of control stress the serious complications in later life. In my enthusiasm to possible through poorly fitted or out-grown footwear. I made the error of quoting an opinion of an author rather than proven fact.

This column is meant to enlighten our many friends relative to the many foot problems met at our fitting stools, not to confuse our work with that of the highly trained foot doctor. Our apologies!
